If war erupts in Iraq, downtown Baghdad may provide the most extensive test yet in the arena of urban warfare and nonlethal weapons technology. This map is based on a 1983 tourist map, reprinted in 1990; some areas may have seen rebuilding. It is presented here to help you understand news reports if and when they become available.